

Genève Music Band Contest 29-30-31 October 2021

GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR GMBC “Genève MUSIC BAND CONTEST”

BAM International sàrl., Music Label and Publishing House based in Genève (Switzerland), mostly dedicated to classical music and music for wind instruments, has decided to hold a Competition called “Genève Music Band Contest” (or GMBC). With this competition BAM International wishes to offer a certain visibility to orchestras for wind instruments and to create an opportunity for all interested wind orchestras from Europe and from further away to get together, express themselves artistically and, in preparation for each event to motivate each participating orchestra to develop their unique qualities and raise their standard from year to year.

REGULATIONS

Art. 1) A band event called GMBC “Genève Music Band Contest” is taking place on October 29-30-31, 2021 in Genève, at Palexpo Convention Centre, situated at the following address: Route Françoise-Peyrot 30, 1218 Le Grand-Saconnex, Genève, Switzerland.

Art. 2) Participating bands will be able to take part in GMBC in one of two ways:

a. As competing bands (following a pre-established categories)

For those that chose to compete at GMBC the following five categories have been established:

- 1) Category Excellence
- 2) Category Superior
- 3) Category First
- 4) Category Second
- 5) Category Third

b. As participants out of competitions in FREE Category.

Genève Music Band Contest

Art. 3) The bands (orchestras) can participate in the competition regardless of the number of musicians that are composing them. The bands cannot be entirely made out of professional musicians. The number of professional musicians within a band taking part in the competition cannot exceed 10% of the total number of musicians.

By professional musicians we mean: teachers in conservatories and/or in schools of music or a musician who is working in a band or an orchestra and holding at least a 12 months contract with that band or orchestra. The organizers may verify the identity of each member at any time during the Competition.

Art. 4) Each wind orchestra can participate in the competition with only one group of musicians. The aggregation of musicians from two different bands is allowed only between musicians / bands participating in the "Category THREE" (see art.2).

Art. 5) As a general rule only wind and percussion instruments are allowed to perform. However, depending on the musical arrangement other instruments might also be allowed. Any variation with respect to the officially announced members of orchestras must be presented for evaluation to the Artistic Director at the time of admission to the competition.

Art.6) The bands participating in the competition must perform the following:

a) COMPULSORY COMPOSITION - which will vary depending on the category in which an orchestra competes in. Every category will be given a different compulsory composition. Only original score sheets will be accepted.

Below you will find all COMPULSORY COMPOSITIONS for all five competing categories, for GMBC's first edition:

- Category Excellence: James Barnes - PAGAN DANCES - Southern
- Category Superior: José Alamà-Gil - FASES - Tot Per L'aire
- First Category: Paolo Mazza - CALIERUS - Bam Music
- Second Category: Salvatore Schembari - SULLE ORME DI FRANCESCO - Bam Music
- Third Category: Jan De Haan - VICTORY - De Haske

b) FREE COMPOSITION - a musical piece freely chosen by competing bands from a proposed list of compositions created for each category. The lists of compositions will be available on the website www.genevemusicbandcontest.com.

Should you wish to perform a composition that is not published on the website please make a written request to the Artistic Direction of GMBC as an official authorization is required.

Art.7) If needed, once comfortably on the stage and before starting to perform one of the pieces explained in article 6, each band will be given an opportunity to warm-up by playing a short “warm-up piece”. This piece is limited in time to 3 minutes maximum.

Art.8) For the bands registered in the category Excellence, the presented program, including the warm up and compulsory pieces, must not exceed a maximum duration of 45 minutes. The presence on stage is limited to 50 minutes. For bands enrolled in the categories Superior and First, the presented program, including the warm up and compulsory pieces, must not exceed a maximum duration of 40 minutes. The presence on stage is limited to 45 minutes. For bands enrolled in the categories Second and Third, the presented program, including the warm up and compulsory pieces, must not exceed a maximum duration of 30 minutes. The presence on stage is limited to 35 minutes. There is a penalty for excess time. The jury is equipped with a chronometer and the counting of the maximum time limits foreseen in the various categories takes place by counting the time elapsed between the first musician who takes the stage and the last musician who leaves the stage.

Art.9) The category Free is not included in the competing part of the competition. Only in the category Free the bands obtain, in private form and without becoming a part of the Genève Music Band Contest competition, a written evaluation prepared by a qualified international jury. First and foremost, the positive aspects of the band as a whole are considered from an artistic and technical point of view, thus offering valid tools and suggestions for further improvement and for the continuation of their musical activity. Participation in this category also includes an assignment judgment through which the bands can recognize their level in reference to the 5 categories of the GMBC. There are no prizes for those who enroll in this category. The bands participating in the Free category must perform two pieces of free choice from the original score sheets. At least one of the two tracks must be an original piece interpreted by the band. It is also possible to carry out a short warm-up piece lasting up to 3 minutes. For these bands the presented program, including any warm-up piece and the two pieces of free choice, must not exceed the maximum duration of 30 minutes. The presence on stage is limited to 35 minutes.

Art. 10) The registration fee for each band participating in the competition and for each participating band in the Free category is Euro 280.00 and it does not include the scores sheets of the compulsory and freely chosen pieces that are charged to the band itself. The registration fee must be paid by bank transfer to the following account: BAM International sàrl, Iban Code CH7780808002422693707 - BIC/Swift Code RAIFCH22XXX - Raiffeisen Bank by the 31 July 2021 together with the application form and the following documentation:
